SHADES

In many movies, supporting roles are so great that they are considered the secret protagonists. Sometimes it's no different with wallpapers. It's the uniforms that take center stage in SHADES, and in this collection they have a fully deserved starring role. This is due to their colors and the delicate feel of the surface, which is softly embossed. This makes each wallpaper reminiscent of finely woven linen and also feels like linen. The different shades of a color match, but the wallpapers also harmonize within the individual color gradations.
